East Action Organization (EAO) – Leading Consortium Partnerships for Regional Transformation

Action for Betterment

East Action Organization (EAO) is proud to lead and co-found several dynamic consortiums across Ethiopia, Somaliland, and beyond. These partnerships bring together universities, NGOs, and community-based organizations to foster resilience, empowerment, and sustainable development.

Jigjiga Innovation and Action Partnership (JIAP)

Members: Jigjiga University (JJU) and East Action Organization (EAO)

Focus: Academic collaboration, innovation, and action research for community impact.

Consortium for Action and Development (CAD)

Members: Organization for Welfare and Development in Action (OWDA) and East Action Organization (EAO)

Focus: Humanitarian response, livelihoods, and sustainable development.

EAOSOSTA Cross-Border Resilience Consortium (ECRC)

Members: Somaliland Skills Training Association (SOSTA) and East Action Organization (EAO)

Focus: Cross-border resilience, youth skills, and peacebuilding.

EAO–ACRIF Cross-Border Resilience Consortium (EACRC)

Members: African Children's Rights Foundation (ACRIF, Somaliland) and East Action Organization (EAO)

Focus: Child rights, protection, and cross-border community development.

Women & Youth Empowerment Consortium (WYEC)

Members: Every Woman's Rights and Youth Organization for Community Advancement (EWRYOCA) and East Action Organization (EAO)

Focus: Advancing women's rights, youth empowerment, and inclusive leadership.

Consortium Partners

Below are the logos of our consortium members, with EAO proudly at the center as lead partner: